

International Webinar
on
The Changing Face of Female Workforce Participation
20th July, 2021

An International Webinar on the topic “The Changing Face of Female Workforce Participation” was organized by the Centre for Women’s Studies, in collaboration with IQAC, Kakojan College on 20/07/21 at 7.pm. Mrs. Sarmistha Goswami, Coordinator of the Centre for Women Studies anchored the webinar. At the very beginning she welcoming all the participants, explained the objectives of the webinar. Principal of Kakojan College Dr. Ruprekha Bordoloi delivered inaugural speech. Mrs. Masum Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics introduced the resource person of the webinar Dr. Sanghamitra Goswami, Executive in Telecom Company (In the area of supply chain: Demand Planning and Forecasting) USA. The webinar was Conducted in Two Sessions- (i) Presentation of the Resource Person (ii) Interaction

In her presentation, Dr. Goswami explained in details on the topic including the history of the women’s workforce participation, the statistical data of gradual increase of their participation, the impact of the increasing women participation on society etc. She also presented some interesting facts comparing the situation regarding women’s participation in workforce in India and USA.

In the second session participants shared their suggestions, observations and also cleared doubts through queries. Total 98 participants from various institutions in and outside Assam joined the webinar.

The webinar came to an end with vote of thanks offered by Dr Nibedita Gogoi, Coordinator, IQAC, Kakojan College.

R Bordoloi
Principal
Kakojan College
Jorhat, Assam