Action Taken Report

The feedback received from the teaching staff was carefully analysed and reviewed. While the overall responses reflected a satisfactory level of satisfaction with the functioning of the institution, certain areas were identified for further improvement and development. Accordingly, the following measures were undertaken:

- 1) Greater emphasis was placed on maintaining cleanliness, hygiene, and a conducive campus environment.
- 2) Infrastructure development was prioritized, and strategic plans were formulated to strengthen and expand the institution's physical and academic facilities.
- 3) Initiatives were taken to organize faculty development programmes, workshops, and academic activities aimed at enhancing the professional growth and academic competence of the teaching staff.
